NCF UNN LEADERSHIP CONDUCT GUIDELINES

1. A CONSISTENT WALK WITH GOD:
An NCF leader must have a continuous walk with God.

2. DRESS CODE:
Males and Females should be neatly and decently dressed at all times.
FOR MALES:
Sundays: Suits or senators with flat shoes
Midweek services: Flat shoes are compulsory.
FOR LADIES:
Midweek Services and EQUIP: Flat shoes only. No sandals or slippers.
Sundays: Heels are compulsory.

3. PERSONAL HYGIENE:
Personal hygiene is essential. Leaders should ensure they always smell pleasant.

4. ACTIVE PRAYER PARTICIPATION:
Leaders must be present and engaged in all prayer times, pre-service, and during service.

5. NO UNNECESSARY MOVEMENT AND LOITERING DURING SERVICE:
Avoid walking around once the service has started. All necessary items should be gotten beforehand.

6. ORDERLINESS:
Leaders should sit in the front rows and ensure no seats in front of them are left vacant in order to maintain

NCF UNN LEADERSHIP CONDUCT GUIDELINES

7. HOSPITALITY TO LEADERS:
Ensure Pastors, G12 leaders, and departmental heads have bottled water during services.

8. RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY:
Instructions from Pastors and Directorate Heads must be obeyed without argument.
If a leader feels wronged, they should report to the appropriate authority instead of reacting disrespectfully.

9. PERMISSION:
Always seek permission from the relevant authority before travelling or being absent from services and meetings.

10. THE CORE VALUES OF NCF:
Every leader should embody the 4 S's of NCF [Service, Sacrifice, Submission and Seed]

11. SUBMISSION AND ACCOUNTABILITY:
Every leader should have an authority they are submitted and accountable to.

12. PUNCTUALITY:
Leaders must arrive early for all meetings and services, i.e., during set-up time.

13. APPRECIATION (HONOR):
Always Get something for your leaders when you return from your travels and for your parents too when you go home after a long time. It's a sign of honour and appreciation.
